

ONE DAY FOR MR. DRIGGS

Sentenced to Spend a Day in Jail and to Pay Fine of $10.00.

THERE WILL BE NO APPEAL

Does Not Lose Citizenship, But Cannot Again Hold Federal Office.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Ex-Congressman Edmund H. Driggs, of Brooklyn, was today sentenced to imprisonment of one day in Raymond Street jail, and to a fine of $10.00. Driggs was convicted of man-elect, for securing a government contract for the purchase of automatic cashiers from the Brandt-Dent Company for the Postoffice Department. There will be no appeal.
Driggs' fine was paid immediately after sentence was pronounced. Mr. Driggs was his attorney, saying that they entered the statement by the court that an honorable man would have no desire to retain money secured under such circumstances. Driggs was not taken into custody. He does not lose his citizenship by the conviction, but cannot hold office again in the Federal government.
In pronouncing sentence on Driggs, Judge Thomas said:
"A man of honorable feeling, although he has erred, would abhor the retention of what came to him illegally, and I believe that such will be your course. You will find that the measure of acquiescence in your past life will join with the private and civic virtues that you may achieve and maintain in the future, and that in the end you will be judged by your whole career and fall alone by this intervening fault and failure."

old man in Shockoe Creek at the point where it runs under the Brook Road crossing. The skull was crushed and the man had evidently been dead for some time.

Coroner James was summoned and at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon held an inquest over the remains. According to the coroner, the man was a laborer, and was killed by a train.

Man and Wife Fined.
Richard Koehler and wife, tollkeepers on Brook Road, were before a Squire yesterday, and were fined $25 and $5, respectively, on a warrant charging them with assaulting J. Henry Brown, the Richmond marble man.

Mr. Brown, accompanied by his wife and child, drove out Brook Road Sunday afternoon, and when he reached the toll-gate, found that he had left her car at home. Mrs. Koehler agreed to let him pass, but when he came back in about fifteen minutes, his husband grabbed the horse and refused to let the party proceed. Mr. Brown whipped up his horse and broke away whereat Mrs. Koehler fired a pistol at the retreating buggy. She said on the stand yesterday that she shot not at anybody, but at "frighten" the occupants of the buggy.
